Assessment system of learning outcomes

The system of assessment of the formed competencies takes into account the types of classes, which include lectures, seminars, practical classes, as well as independent work. Assessment of the formed competencies of students is carried out according to the accumulative 100-point system. Current control, which is carried out during the semester during practical (seminar) classes and independent work is assessed by the sum of points scored. The maximum possible number of points for the current and final control during the semester - 100 and the minimum possible number of points - 60.

Current control includes the following control measures: interactive tasks by topic; current control works; presentations; individual essay writing.

More detailed information on the assessment and accumulation of points in the discipline is given in the work plan (technological map) of the discipline.

Discipline policies

The teaching of the discipline is based on the principles of academic integrity. Violations of academic integrity include: academic plagiarism, fabrication, falsification, write-off, deception, bribery, or biased evaluation. For violation of academic integrity, students are brought to the following academic responsibility: re-assessment of the relevant type of educational work
